MATCH IT CORRECTLY

Have you learned how to use the internet with safety? Match each answer to the right column.

SAFE	DANGEROUS

It's ok to talk to strangers.

I can share with everyone my full name.

If something upsets me online, I can tell it to an adult I trust.

I can help my family and friends by showing them how to use the internet safely.

I can use a nickname instead of my real name.

I can lie about my age.

I can allow my friends to use my username and my passwords to connect online.

Athena, Hermes and Artemis, learn to their grandma ways to navigate online with safety. They talk to her about overuse, about the dangers that exist on social networks, on online games and how to avoid phishing...

They also advise her something extremely useful. If something upsets us, we immediately tell it to an adult we trust.
